Art & Craft Workshops

About ArtStories & Jacquelyn Soo

ArtStories is an artistic endeavour which creates meaningful art projects that uses stories, memories and narrated moments with Singaporean Artist, Jacquelyn Soo.

Jacquelyn has worked with communities locally and internationally conceptualising engaging community art programmes that address the needs of the community. She also creates and works with other artists in various Art & Craft workshops for people interested in learning about art and artistic practices.

ArtStories welcomes individuals and communities from various walks of life including children, youths, adults, elderly as well as people with special needs or disabilities to work with the artist on custom tailored art commissions, art workshops and selected Art & Craft programmes.

Jacquelyn is also a MOE – NAC registered Artist who conducts art training in private and public schools.
